

Adele is a life long resident of Reading, Massachusetts and brings with her a vast amount of corporate experience having worked for more than 10 years in the automobile financial services sector of several Fortune 500 companies. In 1992 she decided to enter the family business by joining Eunice F. Foley Insurance agency and attaining her Property and Casualty license.

In 2000 Adele began working part time with William M. O'Brien & Assoc. expanding her experience and ultimately becoming a full time Customer Account Representative. With the merger of Eunice F. Foley Ins. and William M. O'Brien & Assoc. Adele has now become the Personal Lines Manager.